Synopsis

The Doctor is a documentary about the life of Franjo Grotenhermen, a pioneering doctor who saw the therapeutic potential of medicinal cannabis.

A doctor, a researcher, and a political activist who has been fighting for the right of his patients to have legal access to medical cannabis.

The documentary takes place during the 10th Conference on Cannabinoids in Medicine in Berlin in 2019, organized by the International Association for Cannabinoids in Medicine (IACM) which Franjo co-founded and directed for several years.

The documentary is a journey through his life and work of the last 30 years with interviews with his colleagues and fellow scientists like Raphael Mechoulam, Mark Ware, R Müller-Vahl, Manuel Gúzman, and others.

The Team

FILM DIRECTOR: EDU HERNANDEZ

Edu Hernández, born in Spain, is a filmmaker and photographer focused on journalism and documentaries.

With a passion for journalism, it is his obsession to tell what happens in social conflicts and to reflect true stories of almost unlikely characters.

One of his documentaries, Refugees, has already won awards at 5 film festivals, it has been nominated at 6 additional festivals and it was also selected to raise awareness to the world leaders during the World Government Summit 2017 in Dubai.

Since 2017 he has been working as an independent filmmaker. As a photographer, he worked for local, as well as for international artists, such as Buika, Miguel Poveda, Fuel Fandango and Nynke Laverman.
